Boutique-Hotel Schlüssel, Beckenried (Half board not available)

Nice house in the upper village of Beckenried, built 1727. Our slogan: "Fresh, simple and enough". We use products such as cheese of our Alps, liquors, which are brewed in our village, and calf meat of native farmers. The offer depends on the season, which determines guest desires as well as the good mood of the host. It applies the principle: "there is as much as there is". After approximately 13 weeks of most intensive change time, we are pleased to present you the reconditioned guest rooms. We succeeded in creating a symbiosis between exclusive comfort, equipped with unique equipment of past centuries and cordial charm. The historical, free standing bath tubs from the year 1880, partly with view to the lake of Lucerne and the original wash basin "Belle Époque" invite to spend a romantic evening or holidays with us.
